RULES AND REGULATIONS

PURPOSE

The Sunset Hill Cemetery is sacredly devoted to the burial of the dead. These grounds are in truth akin both in spirit and reverence to the churches and cathedrals of our land and to the religions of the world. Quietness, decorum and proper conduct in all respects will naturally govern all thoughtful and considerate visitors, for such is the reverence and honor due all such sanctified retreats.

The creation of a haven of hope and peace, a place of consolation and inspiration for the living, as well as a worthy dedication to those who have gone before, is the ever guiding concept in these sanctified memorial gardens. Your cooperation in observance of the following rules and regulations is vital to the full attainment of these ideas.
